Policy: PROCUREMENT: ACQUISITION OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

The Exchange, acting through its Chief Executive Officer or another duly authorized officer, shall have the authority to acquire, lease, purchase, own, manage, hold and dispose of real and personal property, and to lease, convey or deal in or enter into agreements with respect to such real and personal property, on any terms necessary or incidental to carrying out the purposes of the Exchange pursuant to Public Act 11-53, as amended from time to time.

Procurement Procedures:

The Exchange may purchase, lease or acquire real and personal property on a bid, negotiated or open-market basis, including through a sole source procurement, or in such other manner as the Chief Executive Officer determines to be appropriate and in the best interests of the Exchange under the circumstances, provided that in the case of any contract or agreement for the purchase, lease or acquisition of real or personal property requiring an expenditure by the Exchange of over $75,000 during a twelve-month period or for a particular project, wherever possible, such contract shall be awarded on the basis of a competitive process which includes the solicitation of proposals from at least three qualified parties. No contract shall be deemed awarded until actual execution of the contract. Any contract entered into by a state agency for the benefit of the Exchange may be assigned to the Exchange and subsequently amended and/or funded by the Exchange.

In no event shall contracts for any non-budgeted expenditure in excess of $5,000 be entered without the approval of the Board of Directors.

Certain Real Estate Transactions:

All acquisitions of real property for the Exchange's own use with amounts appropriated by the state to the Exchange or with the proceeds of bonds supported by the full faith and credit of the state shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Office of Policy and Management and the provisions of section 4b-23 of the general statutes.

Ethics/Conflicts of Interest:

No contract shall be awarded unless such contract will be in compliance with the Exchange's Ethics Policy then in effect.
